A Dog asleep in a manger filled with hay, was awakened by the Cattle, which came in tired and
The Cattle looked at the Dog in disgust. "How selfish he is!" said one. "He cannot eat the hay
Now the farmer came in. When he saw how the Dog was acting, he seized a stick and drove him out
Do not grudge others what you cannot enjoy yourself.

The heron

A Heron was walking sedately along the bank of a stream, his eyes on the clear water, and his

"No small fry for me," he said. "Such scanty fare is not fit for a Heron."

Now a fine young Perch swam near.

"No indeed," said the Heron. "I wouldn't even trouble to open my beak for anything like that!"

As the sun rose, the fish left the shallow water near the shore and swam below into the cool depths toward the middle. The Heron saw no more fish, and very glad was he at last to breakfast on a tiny Snail.

Do not be too hard to suit or you may have to be content with the worst or with nothing at all

The Eagle and the Arrow

An Eagle was soaring through the air when suddenly it heard the whizz of an Arrow, and felt it. Looking down upon the Arrow with which it had been pierced, it found that the shaft of the Arrow
